

John 17, verse 18 says this, John 17, verses 15 through 16, John 17, verses 15 through 16, I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Being like him will mean that we will be willing to go like him, to be sent like him.

Luke 19, 10 tells us why he was sent. He says, For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost. His service is our service.

His love is our love. His suffering is our suffering. His mission, his sending, is our mission, our sending. John 20, 21, it says, Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you.

[ 10 : 46 ] As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. Are you ready to be like him? Like him.

To serve like him. To love like him. To suffer like him. To go like him. There are many different ways we could seek to emulate him, to be like him, to follow in his steps, to walk in his way, to aim to keep in his shadow, to follow his example.

We can also be like him in having his Holy Spirit. His Holy Spirit that led him, that drove him, that compelled him. I urge you today, be like Jesus.

Be like him. Have that Christ-like spirit. Be godly, god-like. Be like him this week. Find a place to show his service to others.

Find a way to extend his perfect kind of love to another. Find a comfort when you face suffering for his name's sake and be sent like him. Yes, go like him into your mission field.

[ 11 : 59 ] Think, what would Jesus do? And act like it. Simply, be like him. Oh, to be like thee.

That is our prayer.!
