John 20 verse 1 says[redacted] what it roughly says is on the morning of Jesus' resurrection Mary Magdalene came to the tomb although she saw that the tomb was empty and that the head cloth and body wrappings were still there she still did not believe that Jesus had resurrected and thought that other people had taken Jesus' body to another place but the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went inside with Peter they saw and believed[redacted] and when Jesus appeared to Mary Magdalene she also saw and believed[redacted] that night the disciples were gathered together and Jesus appeared to them[redacted] or the disciples saw the resurrected Jesus and believed[redacted] therefore when the disciples told Thomas that Jesus had resurrected he didn't believe them[redacted]

[redacted]and do not have the faith to give their whole life into God's hands[redacted]and to completely trust in him[redacted]
[16:54] If we are not up to that stage yetthen our faith may be built blindly[redacted]Thomas's faith is built upon his own experiencesbecause it says that the reason he believed was because he saw[redacted]but thereforetoday our faith should be built upon the understanding of God's word[redacted]so our faith should be built on his word[redacted]and the whole Holy Spirit's guidance[redacted]and not entirely based on logic[redacted]because we cannot see or feel him[redacted]in regards to faithwe can have many queries[redacted]this is very logical[redacted]and it help us to establish our foundations of faith[redacted]

Thomas's doubts are also a very logical request[redacted]and Jesus recognized his faith[redacted]but stated that not everyone who asked for this kind of evidencewill be satisfied[redacted]because the ones that are truly blessedare those who have never seen but still believe[redacted]and God reminds us thatHe will not satisfy these material conditionsof to prove himself every time[redacted]this passage is Jesus teaching us about faith[redacted]we must base our faith upon God's word[redacted]10[redacted]17[redacted] [redacted] saying my lord my god[redacted] [redacted] and all creation exists because of your will[redacted]Let us now bow our heads and pray.
Dear Heavenly Father,
