A non-believer was interestedin finding out more about Christianityand went to find a pastor[redacted]And at the timeI was the only pastorwho was available[redacted]And so I introduced myselfand whatnotand asked himif there was anythingI could help him with[redacted]He looked at me for a momentand askedDoes this church have a pastorwho is a bit older? [redacted]You're so youngyou won't understandI said[redacted]And I repliedHow do you knowI won't understand? [redacted]?And he saidHave you ever studied theology?[redacted]And I saidI haveBut I only have an honors degree[redacted]What I meantby saying that wasthat I was still pretty goodeven though I didn't have a PhD[redacted]And he saidWhat honorsHonors won't doYou still won't understand[redacted]And he was still refusingto confide in me[redacted]And so in the endI had no choiceBut to refer himTo the much older lookingPastor Ron[redacted]Timothy was Paul's disciple[redacted]
Paul sent him to be a representativein the Ephesian churchand to carry out ministry work there[redacted]
