Preacher: David Antwi

[0 : 0 0] Thank you for choosing to listen to today's message by Rev. Dr. David Entry. We know you will be blessed as you seek and serve God. We believe that this message will stir up a desire for more of God even as you listen.

Be blessed. John chapter number 6, verse 5. Just let's start from verse 32. Then Jesus said to them, Most assuredly I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but my father gives you the true bread from heaven.

So very assuredly I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but my father in heaven. Okay, why? For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

What is the bread of God? He says that the man Moses gave is not the bread from heaven.

It ran from heaven. Be careful how you define breakthrough. It ran from heaven. This thing came from heaven. They ate, by the time they woke up in the morning, the thing was there.

[1 : 1 6] We ate bread from, they woke up in the morning, so what's your favorite food? Whatever your favorite food, the thing tasted like that. The manna was proper. It was food.

Par excellence. A very unique food. They woke up and they would eat, and they were instructed to take as much as you can eat, and don't store some.

Because if you store some, anyone who tries to store some, the next day it turns into worms. Apart from the one that God told them, store some in the ark of the covenant, that one never went back in heaven.

That's what we are going to eat. He said, if you overcome, I'll give you the food that is. Revelation chapter 2 verse 17. He who overcomes, I'll give him to eat. He called it the hidden.

Some was hidden in the ark for the overcomers. Those who overcome by the blood of the lamb, and the word of testimony.

[2 : 1 8] So, the manna was so good. Then Jesus comes. He, one day, you see, it's a divine providence. How Leah was connected to Jesus. Jesus was Jesus.

Leah. Leah. Providence. She was, Bible says that Jacob loved Leah. And when God, it's a Rachel. And when God saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb, and she gave birth to a third, chapter 19, verse 29, verse 17.

She gave birth to a first son, and he named Reuben. And then she gave birth, conceived again, and gave birth to a second son. And she named him Simeon.

And she conceived again, gave birth to a third child, and son, and named him Levi. And she conceived again, and gave birth to a fourth one. He gave, and named him, Greek Judah.

The lion of the tribe of Judah. And Bible said, he left giving birth. And she, when Rachel realized that she wasn't giving birth, she took her maid, gave her to her husband, and she produced for her.

[3 : 30] And so when Leah realized that Rachel's maids have given birth, she also took her maid, and gave her, gave her to Jacob, Father Jacob. And Father Jacob produced two, out of that one too.

Ha! And then one day, one day, one day Leah's son, Simeon, came from the woods, and then he brought some fruits, mandarins.

And then Rachel said, can I have some of the mandarin to eat? And then Leah said, ah, you have taken my husband. You now want to collect my son's mandarin too? He said, give me the mandarin, let me eat.

And then so, she said, if I give you the mandarin, then you have to allow Mr. Jacob, Daddy Jacob, to come in to me tonight. And so he said, no problem. He said, deal.

And then he ate the mandarin. And then when Jacob came from town, as soon as he arrived, Leah went to him. Bible said, she conceived again, and she gave birth. And then she conceived again, and she gave birth to Issacar.

[4 : 33] Hallelujah. And then afterwards, Rachel. Yeah, she had the Levites, the Gadites, the, I mean, she had all the key ones.

Very, the key ones. But because Jacob was loved, sorry, Rachel was loved, her children were special. So they had, Joseph, and Benjamin, key ones.

And you know what? Benjamin, in the day, yesterday I spoke about, in the day of the last of Israel, when they lasted for a king, do you know where the king came from? Benjamin. Benjamin. But when God was ready to give them a king, he came from Judah.

Because Benjamin's mother, was a mother, who made the man last. Not, she didn't make him last, but she had a nice figure. Beautiful face, and a nice figure.

And he said, I'll wait for her, for 14 years, so I can marry her, and go into her. That's his words. He married her. He said, now I've served, bring me my wife, so I can marry her.

[5 : 45] And, after all that, Jesus shows up. And then Jesus tells, you know, it looks like providence. Very interesting, that he, Bible says that, he was teaching, one day.

He taught, listen, it's normal, read your Bible. In fact, Joshua, chapter 6, verse 1, of John. After these things, Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

Yes. Then a great multitude followed him, because they saw his signs, which he performed, on those who were diseased. And Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat, with his disciples.

Now, the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes, and seeing a great multitude, coming toward him, he said to Philip, where shall we buy bread?

That these may eat. But this he said, to test him, for he himself, knew what he would eat. So, now, he saw the multitude coming, because of the miracles he did.

[6 : 46] He did miracles. So many miracles, and he redrew, and the multitudes followed him, crowd. And a lot of them, gathered around him.

He sat down with his disciples, teaching their disciples. In Matthew chapter 5, Bible, in Matthew chapter 5, verse 1, Bible says, and seeing the multitudes, and he came to pass, sorry, start with, and he came to pass, and seeing the multitudes, he sat down, and began to teach them, saying, blessed are, then he started teaching, he taught them the beatitudes.

When he saw the multitudes, he sat down, and taught them. Here, Bible says that, the multitudes came, the multitudes came, because of the miracles, he's been doing. And, but it was time for the feast. And he realized that, the people must be hungry by now.

So he asked, Philip, where shall we find bread, for these guys to eat? And he said, sir, you are talking about bread, not to talk of the number.

As for bread, they may sell some, but all the corner shops, if we add all of them together, travel as far as Lutim, Bermuda, add all the shops together, we can't have enough bread, to feed everyone here.

[8 : 04] How much bread? A year's wages, cannot even buy bread, for these guys. Look into your Bible. Hallelujah. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes, and seeing a great multitude, coming toward him, he said to Philip, where shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

When he saw the great multitude, where shall we buy bread? Let's all say that together. Where shall we buy bread? Please say it again.

Where shall we buy bread? When he saw the multitude, the next thing he asked was, where can we find bread, for them to eat?

Say, bread for food. Bread for food. And, he asked this question, verse 6 says, for he himself, knew what he would do.

The question he was asking, was not talking about, the five, the boys' five loaves. No, no, just not as I was talking, I remembered. Ah, he told him about the boys' five loaves.

[9 : 07] When Bible said, he himself, knew what he would do. He worked the miracles, that's why I took our divine providence. It looked like he trapped the people, house out, so he can start a lecture on bread.

He started a whole lecture. That was the biggest chapter on bread in the Bible. But, at the time he was teaching on bread, the guys had been eating, and they were full.

There was leftover. Twelve boxes, leftover. So, that was not the bread. After they had eaten, he withdrew himself, and went away. He vanished. And the people chased him, because they ate.

They followed him, and when they met Jesus, he said, I know why you are looking for me. Because you got bread, and you ate, you are full, you are coming after me, and you know why they wanted him? They were now following him, to go and make him their prime minister.

Because, if you have prime minister, who will be commanding bread to come, there will not be credit crunch. You will have financial problems in town, because the bread will just be multiplied. In those days, they were living for bread.

[10 : 10] So, they came, to make him king. Because of what? The bread they ate. From verse 20. But he said to them, it is I, do not be afraid.

Then they willingly received him. After the people finished eating, he went, and they told them, come on the sea, on the boat. So, he left, and then later, at night, he walked, and came to them, and they were afraid.

And he said, don't be afraid, it's me. So, they received him into their boat. Okay, that's what he said. Go on. On the following day, when the people who were standing on the other side of the sea, saw that there was no boat there, except that one which his disciples had entered, and that Jesus had not entered the boat with his disciples, but his disciples had gone away alone.

However, other boats came from Tiberias, near the place, where they ate bread after the Lord had given thanks. When the people, therefore, saw that, that doesn't even signify, they ate bread after, how did they end up eating bread?

After the thanks. It takes thanks to get bread. When the people, therefore, saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they also got into boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.

[11 : 18] And when they found him, on the other side of the sea, they said to him, Rabbi, when did you come here? Jesus answered them, and said, most assuredly, I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw the signs, because of the bread, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled.

Can you imagine? They ate of the loaves, and that's why they are seeking Jesus. It's the bread that embatter Christianity. He says, I know why he came. I know why he came. It's because of the bread, but not because of the signs, that I've been doing, that are pointing you towards God.

It's the bread. Why it? Do not labor for food which perishes, but for the food which endures, to eternal life, everlasting life, which the Son of Man will give you, because God the Father has set his seal on him.

Then they said to him, what shall we do, that we may work the works of God? Jesus answered and said to them, this is the work of God, that you believe in him who he sent.

Therefore they said to him, what sign will you perform then, that we may see it and believe you? What work will you do? Our fathers ate the manna in the desert, as it is written, he gave them bread from heaven to eat.

[12 : 31] Then Jesus... Wait, wait, wait. Watch the discourse. The discussion was about bread, but just for you, I need to go back and show you something, so that you see it in the Bible for yourself.

This verse 14. Then those men, when they had seen the sign that Jesus did, said, this is truly the prophet who was to come into the world. Therefore, when Jesus perceived that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he departed again to the mountain by himself alone.

He left the guys. He left the guys. What any politician would get this, that people wanted to make him, they were about to take him and make him king by force. Why? Because of the bread they ate.

And when he said, Jesus didn't come for a political agenda. As soon as he saw that, he withdrew himself. And listen to me, brothers and sisters. This is all part of the statement.

For he himself knew what he would do. He knew what was in the heart of man. So they were falling for the trap of God. He was leading them on onto something.

[13 : 34] And so first of all, he did some signs and miracles. He withdrew himself and the people followed him because of the signs. And then he withdrew himself at a time where hunger and there was time for feast and they would be needing bread.

And so he said, where are we going to find bread? So what day we eat? Then the disciples started talking about all kinds of economic issues and logistics. And the Bible said he himself knew what he would do.

And then one said that there's a young lad. He had, he has five loaves of bread and two fish. And he added, but what is it among so many?

This one can. Jesus said, bring it. When Jesus brought it, Jesus took it, blessed it, broke it, gave it to his disciples and told them that, let the people sit down in order and then distribute it to them. And then they started distributing.

Everybody had some. They ate and ate and ate and ate. When he finished there, told them that gathered their fragments. They gathered it and they had 12 baskets. 12 baskets. And so when the people saw the sign, they said, what?

[14 : 33] This is the prophet who is supposed to come? Hey! He said, this was the man. So they planned. A prophet. Why would you want to make a prophet a king? Why would you want to make a prophet a king?

When they saw that, see, what do you do with a prophet? You honor him. What do you do to a prophet? Honor him. That's, that's all you do. Other than that, you, you, you stone him. Because he won't fit into the other things human beings would like a prophet to fit into.

Prophets are very unpredictable and weird. When I say weird, anyone who carries a prophetic grace will not fit into, when you get so close to them, the way you, you want them to be for you.

You find out that they are not really there. So you have to rather adjust to how you be in honor of the oil, not how much they, what they will be for you. They want, now they want to make him a king.

And when you perceive that, these guys are coming to make him a king by force, like the way they do in some of your own towns. They make him a king by force. The Bible said, he redrewed himself. And he asked the disciples to take the lead.

[15 : 38] So he put them in the boat and they went. And himself, at midnight, in the night, he walked on the water and came to the disciples. And they were afraid. He said, don't worry, it's me. He joined them and they arrived.

So when the people saw that, there was only one boat at the shore. And the disciples went in that boat. And they didn't know how Jesus left. They decided to follow up anyway. They also got other boats that have come, joined and chased him.

So when Jesus, they came, Jesus said, I know why you are coming to me. You are not coming to me because of the sign. You are coming to me because of the bread. Then he started giving them lecture on bread.

Bread lectures. Bread lectures. Jesus. All right. So let's begin from there. Verse 26 again. Jesus answered them and said, most assuredly, I say to you, you seek me not because you saw the signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled.

Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life, which the son of man will give you, because God the father has set his seal on him. Then they said to him, what shall we do that we may work the works of God?

[16 : 44] Jesus answered and said to them, this is the work of God that you believe in him whom he sent. Therefore, they said to him, what sign will you perform then that we may see it and believe you?

What work will you do? Our father's eight. No, no, no, no. Listen, listen, that's interesting. They follow him from the signs. They said that this man is a prophet. Now, and God, Jesus said, you are following me because of the bread, but don't labor.

Listen, he told them in the verse, verse 25, he said, labor not for the, the meat. Okay. Which is the bread, which perishes, but for the bread, which, uh, endures unto everlasting life, which the son of man shall, but he has given them bread already.

Which other bread is he talking about? He has given them bread already. He said, labor for this bread that when you eat, you have eternal life. And they, they, they said, what must we do to do the works of God?

And he said, the works of God is that you believe him who have sinned. They said, what sign would you give us so we can believe you? Then you know what? They started again. After saying sign, what did they say? Our fathers ate the manna in the desert as it is written.

[17 : 52] He didn't bring the manna. They brought the manna. He was leading them onto something, leading them on. So they brought bread. They said, our fathers ate the manna. As it is written, he gave them bread from heaven to eat.

Then Jesus said to them, most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but my father gives you the true bread from heaven. All right. Let's just listen to it.

Read the verse, the two verses before again. Jesus answered and said to them, this is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he sent. The next verse. Therefore, they said to him, what sign will you perform then?

That we may see it and believe you. What work will you do? Our fathers ate the manna in the desert as it is written. He gave them bread from heaven to eat. Watch this.

They said, our fathers ate the manna in the desert as it is written. And they quoted. He gave them bread to eat. So they were saying that the manna they ate, that's what the Bible said.

[18 : 51] So he gave them a sign. He gave them bread to eat. He said, what sign will you give us? Our fathers ate manna as it was written. He gave them bread to eat. So Moses was a major prophet and God was the one who validated Moses by giving them the sign.

A bread from heaven. Read it. Then Jesus said to them, most assuredly, I say to you, watch this. Moses did not give you the bread from heaven. Ah, So Jesus said, the scripture is not talking about the manna in the desert.

Because what you ate was not the, what Moses gave you was not the bread from heaven. That wasn't the bread. Have you noticed that the chapter is about bread? So he says that, for it is written, our fathers ate the bread.

He gave them bread from heaven. Jesus said, no, you guys, no, no, no, no, no, no, no. Moses did not give them the bread from heaven. Read it. Jesus, then Jesus said to them, most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but my father gives you the true bread from heaven.

For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world. He said, the bread of God is a he. The bread of God is a he.

[20 : 05] It's not an it. He said, the bread of God is he who comes. You see how he started that thing? He started by asking them, where can we find bread? But he himself knew what he would do because he was the bread.

Where can we find bread for these people? His disciples were so natural. So they were answering in the, in the natural sense. Oh, there's no amount of bread. Please send them to go.

There's no amount. Where can we find bread? So now that his discourse with the Jews came to the place where he was telling them that, um, this bread that you eat, it will perish, but you have to eat the bread that will never, uh, that will give eternal life.

And they said, what must we do there? Well, to do the work of God. He said, believe on him who God has sent. He said, Oh, what time do you give us? Because our fathers ate the bread from heaven. And he said, no Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but God, my father is the one who gives you the bread off from heaven and the bread from heaven.

That my father gave is he really again for the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world. So what is the bread of God? He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

[21 : 23] What's the bread of God? I can't hear you louder. What's the bread of God? For the last time, louder.

What's the bread of God? If I were you, I would tweet it. The bread of God. He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

That's the bread of God. God is a baker. So he said, what's the bread of God? He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world. He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

That's the bread of God. Continue saying. Then they said to him, Lord, give us this bread always. You see, he said, sir, give us this bread always.

Because if the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world, then give us this bread, Lord. They said, Lord, give us this bread always.

[22 : 25] What did he say? And Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life. Someone shout, I am the bread of life. Shout it again. I am the bread of life. I am the bread of life.

Didn't I tell you he was leading them onto something? He let them on, let them on, let them on. And he whet their appetite to want this bread.

I want this bread. I want this bread. I am glad you lost your job. So you can want God more. I am glad he didn't marry you. So you can want God more.

You would have left church by now. I am glad she didn't marry you. So you can want God more. I am glad that contract didn't go through. I am glad you failed that exam.

And you ended up doing a different course. Because the course, that architecture would have taken you to Dubai. Or United Arab Emirates.

[23 : 23] Or somewhere where it looks like money is very rife. You get a lot. Because the way you are desiring money. The way your entire family is all about money.

Everything. You have to get money. You have to get money. You have to get. Even when you are selling your. If you have to sell your destiny to get money. You would have gotten it. Because you didn't know any better.

I am glad you failed that exam. Someone shout providence. Providence. If you are working with God. May I announce to you that if you work with God.

According to Romans 8.28. All things work together for good. To them that love the Lord. And are called according to his purpose.

Not their whims. Not their financial needs. Not their vision. His purpose. Thank God. It didn't go the way you thought it would.

[24 : 21] Today I stand here and say thank God. I didn't have a child earlier. Thank God. Providence. Hallelujah. So. He said.

They said. Ha. Give us. This bread. Give us this bread. He let them on. He let them on. Some of you.

I did not be for. The fact that you are not happy with. The conditions at home. You wouldn't have been here. By now you would have booked some.

Cinema. Going to watch. A movie. The latest movie. What's the latest movie? Spider-Man. Eh? Festival.

Oh first a few. Buy yourself an old movie. It's back again. Part 8. Wow. That'd be nice. Why don't we close and go and watch it? Thank God.

[25 : 19] Thank God. You lost your. You would have had enough money to be watching it by now. Yes. My God. Thank God. Your girlfriend would have taken you to. By now you would have been in the cinema. Thank God.

Thank God. You left. You lost your job. Sometimes good. And thank God. You are not. Thank God. He let them on.

He let them on. Because all things work together for good. To those like you and I. Who love the Lord. And actually. They are actually called according to God's own purpose.

God has a program for your life. It may not go the way you think things must go for you. But I guarantee you. If you can keep loving God. In spite of the negativities that you are seeing.

Oh. It will be very good. Okay. Oh. He has a way of taking care of your children. He has a way of taking care of your family. He has a way of taking care of your health. So that his purpose can be fulfilled.

[26 : 17] I see God favoring somebody here. I see God's program working in somebody's life here. Shout a living hallelujah. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. So now they said.

Lord. Give us. I'm sure by that time. Isn't it not the same thing he did to the woman at the well. In John chapter 4. He said can I have water to drink.

He didn't need the water. He didn't. There wasn't anywhere in scripture. That people say collected the water and drank. He just had discussion with her. He didn't need the water. But he started by. Because he didn't have anything to feed the water.

So she assumed he was sitting there waiting for someone who is coming to fetch water. And give him this Jew some water to drink. And you are asking me a Samaritan woman to give you a Jewish man water to drink.

It seems like you don't know your history. He said give me to drink. And the woman said. How come that you are asking me water to drink? You a Jew. Asking a Samaritan woman water to drink.

[27 : 20] He said if you need the gift of God. And who it is. Who said to you. Give me to drink. You would have asked him. Give me to drink rather.

And then she said. But the well is deep. And you don't have nothing to draw. How can you give me water? And he said that. No this water. This water. When you drink.

You will be thirsty and come back again. But the water that I will give. You won't have to come back here again. So you come late and dodge the men. Who everyone. They know you in town. Because she has been with so many men.

So she comes to fetch water. When everyone has finished fetching water. And people have gone. She needs to come and fetch water. And goes back. So actually. Going to the well.

Was a very. Was a very very serious. It was a very very daunting thing for him. It's like some of you. Waking up Monday morning to go to work.

[28 : 17] Oh. No. You just don't like it. But you know. Some people to hear. To shock you. Coming to church. It's like going to the well. For the woman to draw water.

They really didn't want. But. And Jesus said to them. I am the bread of life. He who comes to me. Shall never hunger. And he who believes in me. Shall never thirst. So John 6:35.

Is one of the. I am sayings of Christ. He said. I am. The bread of life. What did he say? I am. The bread of life. Say it again. What did he say he was? The. What?

What? Take notice of that. Okay. Bread of life. Those of you who have pens and paper. You can write. Bread of life. Okay. So he said. I am the bread of life. And then they said.

Okay. Give us this bread. And blah, blah. The discourse continues. And it didn't end. Okay. Let's pick it up from verse 46. Not that anyone has seen the father.

[29 : 14] Except he who is from God. He has seen the father. Most assuredly. I say to you. He who believes in me. Has everlasting life. I am the bread of life.

I. Let's all say. I am the bread of life. Let's say. Jesus is the bread of life. But. This question.

This provokes this question. But why would you need the bread of life? Because he said it already that. If you don't eat this bread of life. You don't have everlasting life. Okay. So he said. I.

Am the bread of life. All right. Continue. I will show you something. Your father's ate. So. So far. Have you realized that he's been talking about bread?

What else has he been talking about? No, no. Bread of life. So. But the main. The main. The subject. In their discourse.

[30 : 08] Is bread. All right. And that's all he's been talking about. But let's look. Let's move on. There's something. That popped up very strangely. Read down. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness.

And are dead. This is the bread which comes down from heaven. That one may eat of it. And not die. I am the living bread. Which. I am the.

Living bread. Previously said. I am. Bread of life. Now I am the. Is there a difference? I taught you some time ago. There kind of is.

Priestler. Do you think there's a difference? The living bread. The bread. Of life. The living bread. Is the nature. Is the bread that is alive. The bread is alive.

But when he said. I am the bread of life. The bread that gives life. But this time he said. The bread that is actually alive. The bread that can walk. The bread that.

[31 : 06] That has life. The bread. The bread that can say. Hello. The bread that can say. I won't let you bite me. I won't let you have a go.

The bread is alive. It's a living bread. And that bread. When you eat it. Is a bread. Of life. The bread that brings you life. Now watch this. How do you get bread?

How do you make bread? You need a flour. Where do you get the flour from? Wheat. Wheat. Oh.

Tesco. Someone is in Tesco. Okay. No, no. The way I asked the question. It wasn't a better way. It is. How do you get flour? That's what I should have said.

I should have said. Where do you get the flour from? No. Obviously, it's the Tesco shop. The self-raising or the plane. Yeah. So, okay. So, how do you get flour?

[32 : 04] Wheat. Am I right? Wheat. What's wheat? It's a plant. So, bread actually is a product or produce of the field.

It's plants. Vegetation. Bread. So, bread has not got blood. Or yours has?

Oh, no. That jam is not blood. Patricia, are you listening to me? Jam is not blood. There are different types of. And this strawberry red thing.

Is it a jam? Marmalade is not strawberry. I can tell you add butter, marmalade.

And then, peanuts butter. And then, I can tell. And then you add mayonnaise. And then, put ketchup on.

[33 : 06] Oh. Hot dog. Oh, the other one.

What's it? The yellow thing. What's it called? Master. All right. So, he said, I am the bread of life.

Let's take it from there. I am the living bread. The living bread, yeah. Which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. Watch this. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever.

So, why are we supposed to eat of this bread? Because, he said, your fathers ate mayonnaise in the water, in the water, and they are dead. But this bread, you eat to live forever.

That's why this bread is important. So that even if you are allergic to bread, this one, you have to eat it like that. And you may not, you won't have any reactions.

[34 : 09] All right. Read it. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I shall give is my flesh. Is my what? Okay.

Read it again. And the bread that I shall give is my flesh. Which I shall give for you, for the life of the world. Yes. The Jews therefore quarreled amongst themselves, saying, how can this man give us his flesh to eat?

No, no, no. Now he's moving them to another level now. He said, we are talking about bread. Okay, you give us this bread. No, he said, this bread that I'll give, is my flesh. Flesh.

Flesh. Flesh. Not my hair. Hair has not got blood. Flesh. He's introducing something else. He says, it's my flesh.

Flesh is not dry. I'm eating. What are I eating? Flesh and butter. Steak. And I've added butter. All right.

[35 : 13] Read it. Read it. The Jews therefore quarreled amongst themselves, saying, how can this man give us his flesh to eat? Then Jesus said to them, most assuredly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the son of man and drink his blood.

Ah! He introduced the major element inside now. He said, unless you eat the flesh of the son of man and you got to drink. Now, this is where it gets interesting because according to Genesis chapter 2 verse 9, when God created man, he said, eat of the tree.

Man was not meant to eat of flesh. Is that so? Read it quickly. And the Lord commanded the man, saying, of every tree of the garden, you may freely eat.

Yes. So they were eating from trees. Never told them to eat from meat. But, after the fall, when men fell, they had to, they then, God then introduced meat.

So Jesus, in the garden, was the tree of life, similar to the bread thing. He was the tree of life. But, after the fall, he didn't remain the tree of life.

[36 : 26] He became the lamb of God. Which, lamb, you have to, you have something to eat and something to drink. According to Exodus, can I quote?

Yes, yes. According to Exodus chapter 12, verse 4, Exodus chapter 12, verse 4, and then verse 7, and verse 8, and then verse 22. Let's leave it.

You can, you don't read verse 22. You, those who are writing, write verse 22. I believe it. Verse 4, and if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house, take it according to the number of persons, according to each man's need, you shall make your count for the lamb.

So everyone needed a lamb. What are we supposed to do with the lamb? Go to the, verse 7, and they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it.

So when you kill the lamb, take the blood, put it on your two doorposts and the lintel of the house where you are eating it. Is that all? Then they shall eat the flesh on that night.

[37 : 27] Ah, so you are supposed, they were supposed to eat the flesh. Now, because of sin, they had to eat the flesh so they can get the blood.

What is the need for blood? Blood is for redemption. John 1, 29, this is the, behold, the lamb of God who takes away sin.

Blood is for dealing with sin. Blood from Genesis. Blood has always been for, John 1, 29, said, behold, the lamb, watch, watch this, he didn't say the bread, said the lamb, the lamb of God who takes, why?

Because the lamb of God who gives his blood. Romans chapter 3, verse 25, just write it down. God, if anyone turns it, you'll waste their time. Josh, be fast. From Romans chapter 3, verse 24, we are going to Hebrews chapter 9, verse 22.

Romans 3, verse 25, read it now. Whom God set forth as a propitiation by his blood through faith to demonstrate his righteousness because in his forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously commanded.

[38 : 30] blood. So God sets Christ for propitiation through, sets forth, read it. Whom God set forth as a propitiation by his blood. By his blood. The blood is for sin, to deal with sin.

You can't deal with sin without blood. Hebrews chapter 9, verse 22 says that, for without the remission of blood, sorry, the shedding of blood, there was no remission of sins. So, the blood is required to deal with sin.

Blood is required to deal with sins because without blood, sin cannot be dealt with. And so, hallelujah. According to John chapter 19, verse 34, this is even deeper.

34, read it and see. But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear and immediately, ho, ho, ho, ho, this on the cross, they said this man, because it was getting late and what they had to do was to make sure that the convicted criminals, executed criminals are really dead.

They must be dead. So, they had to check if they are actually dead. So, if they are not dead, what they did was, you know, on the cross, you see, you see, his ankles were nailed to the tree and the arms were like this.

[39 : 46] So, that's all that's, he's hanging. Actually, he's hanging on the tree. He was hanging. And, when you hang like that, breathing becomes a problem.

Because, once your arms are being stretched out, when you are breathing, you need to push the diaphragm. Those of you who know a little bit of science. To breathe out, you have to push the diaphragm up and then in, push it down.

And, but once your hands are like this, the diaphragm begins to struggle. So, the only way you can sustain yourself is that, even though it's painful in your legs, they use their leg to support and push themselves for breathing.

So, when they want to kill you, you have to die quickly, they break their legs. So, now their legs are weak. So, you just hang it by and then you begin to suffocate easily. You can't breathe and you die.

So, but there's a scripture that says that none of his bones was broken. So, Jesus' bones cannot be broken. And so, when it was started, it said, get rid of them so that they can die quickly.

[40 : 51] They broke legs of their thieves. And then, next one, they broke. So, when they got to Jesus, they said he's dead already. So, to validate whether, to make sure he's dead, Bible said, they put a spear in his side and then blacked.

Read it. 34. But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear and immediately blood and water came out. Not water and blood. Blood first. Blood.

And then water. Why water? Because the blood has become, his blood had not drained out but when you die, your blood flow stops. So, just the water in the body was what was came out.

But blood came first. It gashed out. But you know, they have to, I told you something, they have to open his side because Jesus is the, sorry, the groom. And to get a bride, they must open your side.

I don't know why men want to marry and you are not ready to open your side. Oh, you check Adam and Eve in Genesis chapter 2 verse 21 to 23.

[41 : 55] Bible says that and are you there, Josh? Oh, I feel like preaching. All right, read it, Josh. And the Lord caused, the Lord God caused the deep sleep to fall on Adam and he slept and he took one of his ribs and, Where's the rib?

Don't tell me it's in your jaws, brother. The ribs are on your side, okay? And he took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh in its place. Then the rib which the Lord God had taken from man he made into a woman.

A woman. Hallelujah. I believe that on the cross Jesus too was the second Adam or last Adam. He was put to bed on the cross. His rib, his side was open and the blood and the blood, what's the blood for?

Redemption. The blood. So, when you read Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, there are different accounts of Christ. Matthew, Mark and Luke, they focus more on the redemptive aspects of Jesus' death.

But many people don't know that when Jesus was dying on the cross, he wasn't only releasing blood to deal with sin, he was also releasing water to give life. So, so, can I tell you the difference between the blood and the water that came out of Jesus?

[43 : 17] Are you interested in knowing? Are you sure you are interested in knowing? All right. The blood came out, it's the blood was to deal with sin, okay? It's the blood.

As I read a few scriptures already, to deal with sin and, and also to purchase the church according to Acts chapter 20 verse 28.

We were purchased by his blood. So, he released the blood to deal with sin. They overcame by the blood of the lamb and the word of the, so the, the blood was to deal with sin, the power of sin and to purchase the church.

Whilst the water, I like this, the water was to deal with death. That's why on the cross, he says that except a grain of wheat, John 12, 24, except a grain of wheat falls to the ground and die, it's a bicycle, but when it dies, it produces much grain.

So, it, it, it fell to deal with death so that life would be released and the water that came was a, really, he was releasing the life inside him for the producing of the church.

[44 : 26] He released his blood for the dealing with sin to purchase the church. He released his, the water inside of him to deal with death. So, in John chapter 3, verse 14 and 15, ah, the scriptures are now too many, isn't it?

This is interesting. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so, must the son of man be lifted up that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

You see, he was dying on the cross to release, to give life, to deal with death because they were dying in the wilderness. So, the death was, was to deal with, his death dying on the cross was to deal with death and to release life.

The blood that came out of him was to deal with the sin, the sin problem, the sin problem. That is why the curtain was torn from the top to the bottom. The, the, the division between God and man, the, the, the, the, the dichotomy, the, the, the, the barrier between God was removed.

Bible says that there was darkness on the face of the earth because sin was being judged now. Sin was being dealt with. That's why there was darkness. On the cross, he said, Eli, Eli, he said, Father, forgive them because when he was, in fact, all these things I'm saying, it is what Matthew, Mark and Luke said.

[45 : 52] They didn't talk about the life aspect. They only spoke about the sin dealing aspect. But it is only John who talks, presents Jesus as the giver of life. So that's why I said, in him was life and the life was the light of men.

There was a man sent from God. His name was John. He was not the light, but he was sent to bear witness of the light. The light that lighted every man that comes out, man.

Hallelujah. Say, I actually feel like preaching. So, the, and so, the water that came out of him, as I said, was to, was to deal with death and release.

It just reminds me of Exodus chapter 17, verse 6, verse 6, yeah, Exodus 17, 6. Is it Exodus 17, 6? Read it, let me hear. Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb, and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it that the people may drink.

They were dying. They were, they needed water. Water came. So, in 1 Corinthians chapter 10, verse 4, the Bible says that they drank from the rock that followed them, which was Christ. So, he had water of life.

[47 : 11] In Revelation chapter, oh, let me remember this. Revelation chapter 21, 21, 21. Verse 6 says, and he said to me, it is done. I am the alpha and the omega, the beginning and the end.

I will give of the fountain of the water of life. That's it, the fountain, the fountain of water of life, the fountain. Watch, I have to finish on this. It's a fountain. When he struck the rock, fountain, cast out, is it not, when they, when they pierce him, fountain, but it wasn't only fountain of water of life, it was fountain of blood and water.

How about, is there anything like fountain of blood? Yes, sir. There's fountain of blood in Zechariah chapter 13, verse 1. In that day, a fountain shall be opened for the house of David.

A fountain shall be opened, and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin, and for uncleanness. This fountain is for sin. The fountain of blood.

He said in that day, a fountain will be opened for the inhabitants, and it's a fountain for sin. The fountain that is taking care of this, the fountain of blood, and we have the fountain of water that gives life.

[48 : 20] So when they pierced him, it was a serious thing. It's a serious covenant statement. Blood. And then he said, you have to eat my flesh and drink my blood.

He was talking about bread. He said, I am the bread, but for your information, in Genesis, he was the tree of life, but because of sin, he wasn't the tree of life anymore.

He became the lamb of God. So you can have the meat to eat and the blood for your sin to drink. So you drink the blood. He says that, put the blood on the house. The blood must be upon you.

The blood must be upon you. And he said, unless you eat me, eat my flesh, and drink my blood, you don't have life. He says that this, my life, I give for the life of the world.

Let's finish on John chapter 6. John chapter 6, verse 53. Let's start from 51. I am the living bread, which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever.

[49 : 20] And the bread that I shall give is my flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world. The Jews therefore quarreled amongst themselves, saying, how can this man give us his flesh to eat?

Then Jesus said to them, most assuredly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me and I in him.

As the living father sends me. Amen. Amen. My flesh is meat indeed. Why would you have to eat? Why would you eat? It's not for taste. When you go to, sometimes, I don't know how many of you have been sick before.

[50 : 26] But they will force you, especially when you have a mother. Your mother will force you. So, food is necessary for living. Now, does that make sense? When Bible says, Pastor Frank, you know, as I was saying, he himself knew what he would do.

And as human beings, what we need is not just the bread, but the bread in the form of his flesh and his blood, that must be drunk.

This is my body, which we're giving up for you. And when they are finished eating, he took the cup, he blessed it, and gave thanks. Give it to them. He said, take this, all of you, drink it.

Death has been defeated. Satan cannot have an upper hand over your life. Satan cannot have an upper hand over your marriage. Satan cannot have an upper hand over your children. Satan cannot have an upper hand over your house.
