[0 : 0 0] ...role and function in getting the doctrines of grace out to a broader community that may not otherwise have access to them.! And we appreciate every effort to get this grace out so that God's people would know that God loves them.

And it is by His grace alone that we have any right standing with Him. And I certainly understand the task of putting together such a conference.

I know all of the work that's needed, the volunteers, everyone that has been so gracious in every capacity in making it work. And I am honored, truly honored to be a part of it.

And as my brother Jarvis says, to be invited back is even another honor. So thank you so much for honoring us and taking care of my wife and I when we come.

And just the effort to speak in such an event where the gospel is central and people understand it and want to hear it.

[1:13] Also to Pastor Moss, has grown as a dear brother in the Lord and I appreciate fellow pastors that are concerned about these things. But I understand your moment and we pray for you in a very difficult season of loss.

And this church, because not only has he lost a dear sister, but as has been pointed out, a servant in the Lord. So I am honored to be here and to share in this moment.

Without prolonging the time, I want to consider somewhat briefly from the Psalms, Psalms 119. And as it's mentioned in the scriptures or in your program, it's verse 50.

But in addition to verse 50, I want to include verse 49. So verses 49 and 50, and I do apologize for that mishap.
