My God, Jesus is coming. Oh, he's coming. He's coming after your people. Prepare. Is your heart prepared tonight? Why don't you run tonight?

[41 : 24] Why don't you get ready now before he comes? Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Lay aside the old fleshly cloth and get in the spirit. By God, it's up here. It's flowing out.

But you've got to get in the spirit. Nobody's going to pick you up and put you in the spirit. You've got to want to get in the spirit. You've got to ask to get in the spirit. Hallelujah.

Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. You know what the spirit is saying? Why do you sit in your seat? And why would you grieve my spirit, says the Lord?

Yea, for not the anointed upon thee. Yea, why would I move out? Move out of thy flesh and move it to me, says the Lord. And I shall restore thee, says God. Woo. Woo. Raise your hands and praise the Lord tonight.

Amen Glory to God You can get it tonight Just surrender your will, love Let His will become your will Amen Hallelujah Glory to God Hallelujah Everybody knows we like to really sing around here Sister Brenda wants to hear Sister Kim sing Sister Bradley How many of you know a man who can?

[52 : 05] How many of you know a man who can? How many of you know a man who can? How many of you know a man who can? How many of you know a man who came? This is round two, those that didn't get it in the first time.

Now I can take a heart that's broken, make it over again.

But I know a man who came. I can take a soul that's in sick, make it white, white as snow.

But I know a man who came. Some call him Savior, the Redeemer of our men.

And I call him Jesus, for he's my dearest friend. Now if you think that no one loves you, and your life is out of hand.

[53 : 36] Then I know a man who came. Now I can walk upon the waters, or calm the raging sea.

But I know a man who came. I can't cause blind enough to be open.

Oh, make the legs to walk again. Oh, but I know a man who came.

I call him Savior, the Redeemer of our men. I call him Jesus, for he's my dearest friend.

Now if you think that no one loves you and your life is out of hand, then I know a man who cares.

[55 : 09] Amen.

I know a man who can. Amen. What's his name? What's his name? What's his name? Jesus. Somebody else jump up and testify tonight.

You don't have to come up here. Jump up and testify what God's done for you this week. Come on, somebody somewhere. Praise God.

Give the Lord a good hand for that. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.

Amen. Amen.

[57 : 28] Give the Lord a good hand for that testimony tonight.

Praise God. Amen. We got some folk here way down from Clarkston. Is that right? Clarkston. I don't even know where Clarkston is, but it's somewhere down around Bee Springs and honey is in the country.

I mean, to get to my house, you got to go through the country and then back out to the outskirts of the country, you know. Praise God. They live. We're glad to have them here tonight. They got married back in April the 6th of 1986.

And the Lord sent me up here in June. Well, we got to talk to them before service this afternoon. I thought that's kind of odd. They said they've been married seven and a half years. And I said, well, that's about how long I've been up there in Louisville. Glory to God.

Somebody else want to testify tonight? Amen. Amen. And I do too.

[58 : 44] Praise the Lord.

Amen. Amen. Last Sunday night, a young couple slipped in and sat right along here. She came up here and sang a song.

And I asked where her mother-in-law was, and she was sick. And after church, I tried to call that mother-in-law. But I couldn't get anybody to answer the telephone.

And now tonight, the mother-in-law's here, but the daughter isn't here. She's sick. Anyway, this is one of my dearest friends that the Lord has gave me.

And not only me, my whole family. I want Sister Pat Putty to come up here tonight. And Brian's going to sing.

[59 : 48] Oh, I thought you said Brian's going to sing. Brenda may sing after you do, hon. Is anybody in a hurry tonight? Is anybody in a hurry? I'm not in a hurry.

Come on, hon. I mean, I'm going to be here all night. I'll be here when the sun comes up in the morning. Is anyone cold? Some of them are saying they're cold.

Somebody turn down. Somebody turn down a little bit. Praise God. There's a song that I had on my mind today, The Only Real Peace.

If you know it, help me sing it because I still don't feel too swift. Do you? I think. Life is a few days of trouble, a wise man once said.

But I'll not complain. For I'm sheltered, I'm clothed, and I'm fed.

[61 : 20] But finish the trials, my wants and my dreams put me through.

And the only real peace that I have, dear Lord, is in you.

The only real peace that I have, dear Lord, is in you.

With all of me, I need you, and I know I do.

For the only real peace that I have, dear Lord, is in you.

[62 : 45] Well, the higher I've soared and I've dreamed, The harder I'd fall.

And sometimes I wonder if dreams are worth dreaming at all.

But my disappointment can keep me blinded and blue.

Not when I'm reminded of the sweet peace I have, Lord, in you.

Please pray. Please pray. Please pray. Please pray. Please pray. Please pray. Please pray. Please pray.
