[0 : 00] A lot of people might think that's basic, but it took me 31 years to learn that one.! Alright, so Colossians, right? So we've been in Colossians. I get the privilege and the! somewhat intimidating task of finishing this great book. So I'm going to be covering just! the closing. So we see at the end of the letter, I'm going to be covering the closing.

I'm going to be covering the letter, Paul greets the church in Colossae. And I think that's where this is intimidating, because there is so much in this book, there's so much in this book that points our eyes and magnifies our view on Christ. And so I pray.

It's not an individual activity, but it's a team sport, right? And it's a sport, it's a team activity that is empowered.

It's a team sport. It's a team sport. It's a team sport. team sport.

team sport. team sport. team sport. team sport. Thank you.
