There were so many people ■iliri, we were rejected, we were mooing.

That's why we want to make us wonderful you. These people come to therapy, even first get out of places. These people come through, and as I stand, I want to dance like this." As we, we were sent to go to the pictures, we were told to do a plot with other people back We feel coming to those pictures.

We speak to the pictures of people, we say if the pictures are involved, we try to go we have different stories, I call them all happen to them that it's not they're not you out of the world.

[13:33] We speak to them as they're mobile and testing the stories and they don't know how ■ The very presence of this fear, this pain, the dread of God and his judgment.
