Preacher: Rev Iver Martin

[0:00] Welcome, I did invite everyone to talk to us online and a world.

I saw a head over the Sinus, it was the meeting and heads over the centers of Jerusalem so the presidents are off for the crossroads and the leaders and in August, they were a little bit at home, to finish itself on the vacation and to join us as a mortgage.

But to don't engage that we have to do the work of the work that we have in the past.

We have to do three tours in the city. And we have to do the work of the city.

But we have to do the work of the city. There are some maps that we have to do next to the city.

[1:42] The tourists are 1600 miles. 1600 miles. And the tourists are 3000 miles.

And the rest of the tourists are 3300 miles. There are a few miles to the city.

And the tourists are the people who are who are the people who are in the towns.

And the people are the people who are the people who are the people who are the tourists the tourists.

The end of the third journey. And the people are the people who are the people in the Jerusalem who are the people who are the people who are in the people who are three years.

[4:16] And the people are three years.

And the people are the people who are the people who are the people who are and Paul is not the people who are the people who are the people who are the people who are the people who are the people who are the people who are the people who are the people who are who are the people who are the people who are the people who are who are the people who are the people who are who are the care of the church and they are the people who are the people who are the people who are the

We are not commanded to be humble for the sake of being humble. We are commanded as God's people to be humble because Christ humbled himself.

What does it say in Philippians chapter 2? that he was in the form of God and thought it not robbery to be equal with God and yet made himself of no reputation.

[16:46] Verse 31.

And that's what Paul spent three years in Ephesus witnessing, person after person, coming to faith in Jesus Christ. And people, and it didn't stop there.

They went on in their faith and in their knowledge of Jesus. And Paul shared with them, and many's a difficulty, and many's a trial. And that, of course, that produced a really precious and a really important relationship between him and them.
