

God — And Ourselves

Disclaimer: this is an automatically generated machine transcription - there may be small errors or mistranscriptions. Please refer to the original audio if you are in any doubt.

Date: 07 January 2022

Preacher: Billy Graham

[ 0 : 00 ] The 7th of January, God and ourselves. The Bible passage, From everlasting to everlasting you are God.

That is taken from Psalm number 90 and verse 2. If you have time, read the whole Psalm. Moses, who wrote this Psalm, was born in Egypt about three and a half thousand years ago.

Before the time of his birth there had already been 18 dynasties of rulers in that country. Moses would have heard about some of them.

Later in his life, God made known to Moses what we now read in Genesis chapters 1 and 2 about the creation of the world.

No wonder then that Moses could exclaim, From everlasting to everlasting you are God. Time makes no difference to God.

[ 1 : 16 ] He is changeless. In contrast to God, we do change and the years take their toll. No matter how long we may live, our lives will come to an end.

Moses prays, So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom. This is very important.

Because when our lives on earth end, we will go to meet God face to face. A heart of wisdom will teach us to obey God.

He has authority over every aspect of our lives. A heart of wisdom will teach us to trust God and his Son from heaven, the Lord Jesus Christ.

A heart of wisdom will teach us to fall out with sin and fall in with God, as Thomas Brooke said, Because God hates sin.

[ 2 : 25 ] A heart of wisdom will be filled with a love for God, that we may stay close to him always. And a prayer.

Almighty God, it is our prayer that you will teach us to number our days, that we may get a heart of wisdom. Amen.

Amen.