

The Power Of The Gospel

Disclaimer: this is an automatically generated machine transcription - there may be small errors or mistranscriptions. Please refer to the original audio if you are in any doubt.

Date: 18 March 2022

Preacher: Sue Simison

[0:00] 18th of March, the power of the Gospel. Our passage today, Romans 1, verse 16.

For I am not ashamed of the Gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation. Have you ever looked up at the sky on a clear starry night and marveled at the sheer beauty and expanse of the heavens? Just think of the power it took for the Creator to bring all of this into being. Much, much more than we can see and much, much more than we can imagine.

God is the Creator of the universe. But God's creative power is used in another way as well. In the Gospel, God makes sinful people new creations in Christ Jesus.

2 Corinthians 5, verse 17. That same wonderful power that made the world was needed by God to turn helpless, lost, hopeless sinners into new people with a new heart to love and follow Jesus Christ.

[1:11] That shows us just how bad we sinners have become when it needed such power to change and save us. It is one of the greatest pieces of good news that the world has ever known, giving hope and rescue to people who have become utterly powerless to change their lives.

But the power of God can do all of that by making a new creation out of that old life. Have you felt that power in your life?

The power that changes us into someone who thankfully follows the Lord? And a prayer. Dear Lord, I thank you for the power of the cross, which brings me to rejoice in your salvation.

Amen.