

He's Got The Whole World In His Hands

Disclaimer: this is an automatically generated machine transcription - there may be small errors or mistranscriptions. Please refer to the original audio if you are in any doubt.

Date: 26 April 2022

Preacher: Angus Macdonald

[0 : 00] The 26th of April. He's got the whole world in his hands. Revelation chapter 1 verse 8. I am the Alpha and Omega, says the Lord God, who is and who was and is to come, the Almighty.

The world we live in can be a very scary place. There's so much violence, poverty and natural calamities that we wonder just what is going to happen to us in the future.

We read three times in the book of Revelation that God is the Alpha and Omega. Once in the Old Testament we read a similar phrase. I am the first and I am the last and beside me there is no God.

Isaiah chapter 44 verse 6. What does all this mean for us? It means that the world we live in was created by God. It is still under the control of God and one day God will bring it to a place where he will create a new heavens and a new earth where there will be no more sin or death.

Righteousness will be the order of the day. So where does today's suffering and sadness fit into this scheme of things? It's a reminder that we live in a world that is suffering the results of the terrible curse that sin has brought upon the whole world.

[1 : 27] However, nothing is beyond the control of God. He has the whole world in his hands and one day he will show this in the glory and judgment that is yet to come.

And a prayer. Almighty God, while we look for that glorious future, help us to witness for you today. Amen. Amen.