

Uninvited Guests

Disclaimer: this is an automatically generated machine transcription - there may be small errors or mistranscriptions. Please refer to the original audio if you are in any doubt.

Date: 18 October 2022

Preacher: Jon Watson

[0 : 00] The 18th of October, Uninvited Guests I say this because some godless people have wormed their way into your churches, saying that God's marvelous grace allows us to live immoral lives. Jude 4 in LT They were not invited. They are noisy, messy, and hang around all day and night.

No, I'm not referring to new neighbors or partygoers, but seagulls who have taken up residence on our chimney pots. I don't know if Jude was bothered with seagulls, but he was certainly warning about the danger of traveling uninvited preachers.

There were many such men in the early days of the Christian church, and they claimed to have special powers, healing powers, revelations directly from God. But Jude said they were shameless scoundrels.

Their design is to replace the sheer grace of God with sheer license, which means doing away with Jesus Christ, our one and only Master. Jude 4, The Message People like them are still around.

There are still preachers, maybe in churches or maybe on television, who claim special healing powers or charismatic gifts, but who do not teach the whole gospel of the saving grace and purity of God.

[1 : 20] Don't invite them in. Wrong teaching always leads to wrong living. Too often, Christians are tempted to take a lead from worldly people and end up living in a non-Christian way themselves, denying the way of Jesus Christ, our one and only Master.

Let's heed the warning Jude gave to the people of his day. Beware these guests who turn out to be shameless scoundrels. A prayer Dear Lord, please help me to avoid inviting into my heart the devil and his ways.

Amen.